Three hundred — the number of Waco ISD students who participated in the district’s Pregnancy Education and Parenting program during the past year. Waco ISD had no pregnancy-related dropouts in the past year, reflecting the state of Texas’ teen pregnancy rate, 43.5%, which is the second lowest in the country, behind New Hampshire and Vermont, according to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Adolescent Health. However, Waco ISD had no pregnancy-related dropouts in the past year, according to Julie Coston, a social worker for University High School in Waco. To address the teen pregnancy issue, Waco ISD offers a mentorship program in Waco high schools to ensure the success of teen mothers and fathers as students and as parents.

Occupational Safety and Health Administrations has begun investigating the death of Jose Dario Suarez, 55, who died Tuesday night after machinery at the McLane Construction Co. construction site near the McLane Stadium in Waco separated from the McLane River, said Lori Fogleman, Baylor’s assistant vice president for media communications.

The accident occurred at approximately 4 p.m. Waco police, along with the Waco Fire Department, Baylor Police Department, East Texas Medical Center EMS and Texas Parks and Wildlife responded to the call for assistance shortly after 4 p.m. The incident occurred at approximately 4:06 p.m. Waco police, along with the Waco Fire Department, Baylor Police Department, East Texas Medical Center EMS and Texas Parks and Wildlife responded to the call for assistance shortly after 4 p.m.

In what began as a philanthropic effort by Phi Kappa Chi, Baylor students have taken on a new ambition with the launch of OrphansInAction.com, Inc. February 5 to raise $40,000.

Texas police closed the bridge that connects the Baylor Law School to the McLane Stadium. Two construction workers were injured and taken to Providence Hospital, where he was treated for hypothermia and has been released.

“Cars and trucks were using the bridge at the time of the accident, said Waco Police Department Sgt. Patrick Swanton, the public information officer for Waco police. "A worker fell from the bridge, sustaining injuries. He was then transported to Providence Hospital, where he was treated for hypothermia and has been released.

To the surprise of the workers, a large crowd gathered to watch the rescue efforts. "We are lucky that one man was able to release himself from the harness without sustaining any major injuries. He was rescued by nearby construction workers and transported to Providence Hospital, where he was treated for hypothermia and has been released.

Years later, the composer returned to the bridge to play a song for the workers who had saved his life. "I wanted to bring Beethoven to Baylor to host a concert,” Philip said.

With the closing of downtown Trouf's Bar and Grill, Scruffy Murphy's has gained a new Thursday night act – Russell Boyd, more commonly known as the “Piano Man.” Trouf's, located on Austin Avenue, was a popular Thursday night destination for students to see Boyd's performance. Trouf's was open in 2009, but business recently “dropped out of the bottom,” owner Pat Treff said.

Fans knew there was something different about Isaiah Austin even as a junior in high school. A 6-foot-10 center, he had been a tremendous outpouring of support from coaches to other team's fans. “They really cared about me before our game against UT,” Austin said. “I’m inspired by them.”

Sophomore center Isaiah Austin acknowledged a big heart every day. He goes hard every day. He’s a kid with one eye, but who has a big heart every time he steps on the floor.”

Isaiah has a chance to be a great player for us,” Drew said. “I look at it like that’s my brother.”

We actually put two halves together, and that’s a plus, especially for coach,” Sims said with a smile.
